

The Bayshill, 85 St Georges Place, Cheltenham, GL50 3PP

INTRODUCTION

The Bayshill is situated in St George's Place, at the heart of Cheltenham town centre. A fantastic family friendly pub, offering a large beer garden with coffee shop and serving traditional homecooked food. There is also a separate function room with bar and skittle alley.

TRADING POTENTIAL

The Bayshill sits in a favourable town centre location and is just 7 minutes away from the must visit Cheltenham racecourse. The racecourse hosts fixtures and festivals throughout the year, the Bayshill often is one of the ideal places to go before and after race events. This pub offers a friendly atmosphere, with commodious space for diners and drinkers, historically called "a proper pub" by its locals. There is something for everyone to enjoy, the ever popular live music events, function room hire and the outside kitchen, coffee and ice cream shack located in the bustling beer garden.

PRIVATE ACCOMODATION

The two bedroom living accommodation is in good condition, ideal for a couple or small family. It benefits from bathroom, kitchen and lounge.

TRADE AREAS

The pub offers a large beer garden which can seat up to 130 people, a spacious restaurant with space for 60-70 people. A fully equipped trade kitchen and toilets are all ground floor level. A function room with Skittle alley makes a great addition to this pub. The garage has been converted into a fully functioning outside kitchen. This pairs well with the garden's coffee shop and ice cream shack.
